

YOUTH MUSIC PROJECT'S ATTENDANCE POLICIES

REGISTRATION:

Registration is required for participation in any Youth Music Project activity and must be completed before a student begins. Registration can be completed online at www.Youth-MusicProject.org, by calling 503-616-5967, or in person. Checks and money orders must be made payable to Youth Music Project. Please do not send cash. There is a $25 returned check fee.

TUITION ASSISTANCE

Tuition Assistance eligibility is determined by the Federal Financial Income guidelines for Free/Reduced Lunch. Those who qualify may register, tuition free, for one weekly class or lesson per term and one week-long summer camp per year. Students must enroll in a group class before taking a private lesson. If you are a returning student and have successfully completed a group class, you may register for 30 minute private lessons. If you wish to register for more than one class per term standard rates will apply to each additional registration. In order to be considered for tuition assistance, Youth Music Project must receive current eligibility documentation. Acceptable Documentation: a free/reduced lunch eligibility letter you're your child's school, proof that a child is in foster care, a current SNAP benefits award letter, an OHP eligibility letter, or the current year's Tax returns. Tuition Assistance is awarded per calendar year. Recipients must reapply each fall.

PARENT/GUARDIAN RESPONSIBILITIES

Parents and guardians are solely responsible for escorting children under 12 years of age to and from their designated classrooms and instructors. Parents and guardians will be required to cover the cost of repair or replacement of any damaged Youth Music Project equipment, instruments, or facilities if the damage was caused by them or their children.

DISCONTINUATION

Youth Music Project reserves the right to discontinue a student at any time for failing to meet our attendance policy (see separate waiver), non-payment of fees, or disruptive behavior. No refund will be given. If the student is discontinued for non-payment of fees, he or she may in the next term after the account balance is paid in full. If discontinued due to inconsistent attendance, the student may enroll again for the next term and eligibility for tuition assistance will not be affected.

CANCELED CLASSES

Our classes must meet minimum student enrollment. Classes that do not reach the minimum threshold before term begins will be canceled and students will receive a full refund or account credit. In the event a class must be canceled after the beginning of term, a prorated refund or account credit will be given. All class times listed are subject to change.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Youth Music Project's programs and services reflect the cultural diversity of our community. We do not discriminate on the basis of religion, race, color, ethnicity, sex, gender identity / expression, national origin, sexual-orientation, age, disability, veteran status, or other status protected by applicable law.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

Youth Music Project's goal is to make the most appropriate decision for our students, staff and patrons based on available information. The Youth Music Project will typically be closed for classes if West Linn/Wilsonville Schools and Offices close due to weather conditions. Please see www.YouthMusicProject.org for closure reports. If classes and lessons are canceled due to weather, a credit will be placed on the student's account for the missed activity.

MEDICAL CONSENT AND RELEASE

The Parent or Guardian hereby authorizes Youth Music Project to secure proper treatment, including medical, surgical, diagnostic, or hospital procedures for their child if they cannot be reached in case of an emergency. You hereby release and forever discharge Youth Music Project from any claim whatsoever that arises or may hereafter arise on account of any first aid, treatment or service rendered in connection with the Participant's involvement in a Youth Music Project activity or with the decision by any representative of Youth Music Project to exercise the power to consent to medical or dental treatment as such power may be granted and authorized in the Parental Authorization for Treatment of a Minor Child .

LIABILITY RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION

The Parent or Guardian, on behalf of themselves, Child, and their Child's heirs, parents, family estate, executors, administrators, assigns, and personal representatives hereby release, agree to indemnify, and hold harmless Youth Music Project and its directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors, and assigns from any and all claims, demands, losses, damages, and liabilities of whatever kind or nature, either in law or in equity, which arise or may hereafter arise from the above named participant's connection with any Youth Music Project activity. This discharges Youth Music Project from liability or claim with respect to any bodily injury, personal injury, illness, death, property damage, or other loss that may result from participation in Youth Music Project whether caused by the negligence or otherwise. Youth Music Project does not assume any responsibility for or obligation to provide financial assistance or other assistance, including but not limited to medical or disability insurance, in the event of injury or illness. This Release and Indemnification is intended to have only the scope and effect permitted by applicable law.

OTHER

The Parent or Guardian expressly agrees that this Release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the laws of the State of Oregon and that this Release shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon. The Parent or Guardian agrees that in the event that any clause or provision of this Release shall be held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity of such clause or provision shall not otherwise affect the remaining provision of the Release which shall continue to be enforceable.
